

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of partisan media that is owned by rich individuals who have unequal access to our air waves. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead of media that acts as a watch dog for the public interest, the FCC is giving license to a partisan outfit that is using it to push its own agenda. Their large contribution to the Bush campaign makes it clear that they want a specific candidate to be elected so they can be repaid in like manner after the election.

I would urge you to stop Sinclair from airing such a partisan program that is intended only to benefit itself and not the public.
Thank you.
